About

Get ready for an intensive, one-week summer experience that challenges you to engage in significant community projects while receiving F11 credit. Volunteering at a nonprofit organization, you will have the opportunity to use your skills and abilities to truly make a difference and pursue your passions. Working full-time with community organizations will give you the insider's view about how they operate. You will be part of a group of six fellows who will help you learn even more about Memphis and ways to tackle challenges you will encounter.

The Summer Service Fellowship, led by Co-Directors Sandi George Tracy, and Courtney Jackson, is an opportunity for you to work on community issues in Memphis. If you already have connections with a Memphis organization you would like to discuss or Choose a nonprofit that you think would be a good partner for your Summer Service Fellowship. Meet with this group to present your project. Prepare for this meeting by completing the Nonprofit Endorsement Form. Keep in mind that this is a long process, so start as soon as possible.

- The program commitment is 40 hours per week: on average 36 hours per week are devoted to community projects and 4 hours per week are devoted to group programming.
- Fellows are paid $3,492 ($9.70 an hour) and are offered free housing at Rhodes.
- In order to allow participants time and energy to fully engage in the experience, Fellows may not hold another job or attend summer school.
- Fellows must provide their own transportation to community sites.
